

SECOND MASS MEETING FOR CIVILIAN DEFENSE HELD AT COURTHOUSE

Brother Alexis, Chairman of Executive Board Presides—
Nearly Six Hundred Persons Have Registered For Defense Work—Several Speakers Address
Meeting on Important Matters.

On Monday night at the Courthouse, a large crowd attended the second mass meeting for civilian defense.

Brother Alexis, chairman of the Executive Board of Civilian Defense presided over the meeting.

Mrs. C. C. McDonald, Director of the Volunteer Civilian Defense Office, stated that the first mass meeting had been held four weeks ago and expressed her thanks for the splendid cooperation which the office had received since.

Nearly six hundred persons have registered with the Volunteer Office during the registration period of March 2nd to 5th.

The office has been moved from the third floor of the courthouse to the first floor, and two other centers have been planned, the Waveland center calling its meeting this week.

Mrs. McDonald stated that with the entire technique of war changing, nothing is predictable when planes can cross the ocean to Europe in eight hours, and planes traveling three hundred miles an hour are considered a liability these days.

Organization is necessary even to teach people to move orderly in a crowd.

Mrs. McDonald reminded us that the cardinal sin in military matters is to be surprised or caught unprepared.

She stated that defense plans which are being made and different groups in which we are trying to place and train people will enable us to provide order and preparedness in case of attack.

In the absence of Mr. A. E. Cox, Chief Air Raid Warden who is attending a school in Jackson, Mrs. McDonald explained the services of the air raid warden group and told of the American Legion taking this phase of the defense work over and arranging to send Mr. Cox and another representative from Mississippi to the school in Jackson.

Dr. C. M. Shipp, county health officer, spoke in the interest of a blood bank in Bay St. Louis and explained the great advantage of the use of blood plasma from such a blood bank over direct transfusions which require a great deal more time. He told of the low mortality rate in the surprise attack on Pearl Harbor being attributed partly to the fact that blood plasma had been on hand and was used in the immediate treatment of victims.

Dr. Shipp stated that any person in good health between the ages of fifteen and fifty should donate a pint of blood and register for this service with the Volunteer Civilian Defense Office here and arrangements would be made for the taking of this blood when fifty donors gathered here and the special unit from either Baptist Hospital or Hotel Dieu will come to Bay St. Louis for this purpose.

City Commissioner H. Grady Perkins told of a test blackout which will be held in Bay St. Louis either March 25th or 26th and reminded everyone of the blackout pamphlets which had been distributed by the Boy Scouts some time ago, requesting them to familiarize themselves with the regulations and show their good citizenship by adhering strictly to these regulations.

Mr. Perkins stated that a while back word had been received to immediately blackout all decorative and unnecessary lighting and people had cooperated splendidly. He stated that the city and county officials were charged with the responsibility of safeguarding life and property in the community, and were taking every precaution along these lines. Because of its having been mis-sent the air-raid siren was expected within the next few days.

Mr. Perkins asked for complete cooperation on the part of everyone in the test blackout, and the importance of everyone's watching for errors which might occur, this would be something entirely new to everyone here.

Mrs. McDonald stated an organization had been formed for the salvaging of all available material, and Mr. Roland Weston had been named chairman of this committee.

Mr. Weston then addressed the meeting and stated his committee would collect scrap iron, rubber and glass. This is not wanted because of the lack of means of handling it. Mr. Weston asked for suggestions for economical means of salvaging any of the articles, especially scrap iron.

Brother Alexis stated that Mr. Murphy, Chairman of the Civilian

LOCAL CHAPTER ACTIVE

St. Margarets Daughters To
Can Large Quantities of Food For Lunch Room

With preparation for defense in every manner steadily going forward, St. Margaret's Daughters, well known local charity organization, is doing its usual quota of charity, and assisting also in providing children with hot lunches.

Instructions from Washington in regard to the necessity of evacuation in the event of attack by the enemy are that all children must be sent to a point one hundred and fifty miles from the coast line, and naturally food supplies would have to accompany them.

St. Margaret's Daughters in preparation for their school lunches for the Fall season are planning on canning a large quantity of food products and anticipate having thirty-five hundred cans of food for use in their school lunch room. Now, as heretofore stated, in line with the defense program, in the event of disaster in this section, or advance information of an attack, one of the first measures in the evacuation of the children of the section would be the transporting of this entire supply of canned food for their use, at whatever point they are removed to.

A bingo party given on Sunday afternoon at Trapani's netted a nice sum to assist in all of their good work and Mrs. G. Y. Blaize, president, wishes to thank everyone who assisted in any way with this good cause.

HILLE'S GARAGE LOSES TIRES THRU ROBBERY SATURDAY

Automobile tire thieves took heavy toll from the Ben F. Hille Garage on last Saturday morning when they gained entrance through a window which had been forced open.

Mr. Hille had worked late Friday night and stated it was after midnight and in the very early morning that the robbery of his place must have been committed.

Besides a number of tires and accessories and a high-priced automobile radio, the thieves jacked up a new Oldsmobile automobile which was on the display floor, removed all tires and accessories and left the stripped automobile resting on the floor of the room.

That the robbery was committed by veterans was evidenced by the fact that no identifying marks or evidence whatever were left behind and even the serial number of the stolen radio was removed and left lying on the floor of the garage.

A thorough investigation was made by city and county officers and every effort is being made to apprehend the thieves.

REVEREND FATHER LEO F. FAHEY VISITS BAY ST. LOUIS

Reverend Father Leo F. Fahey was a visitor to Bay St. Louis on Monday. The people of Hattiesburg are indeed fortunate to have such a splendid character in their midst. We of Bay St. Louis, envy them. However, we are proud of the fact that we have been able to furnish them with a native born Catholic Priest.

Father Fahey is quite active in his new Parish and we were pleased to note that at the Dedication Ceremonies of the Federal Community Building at Hattiesburg on March 15th, that Father Fahey was on the program, having delivered the Benediction.

Defense Council of Hancock County was scheduled to speak at this meeting but had been called to a meeting in Gulfport and had not returned in time.

Mrs. Dennis F. Burge, Executive Secretary of the Red Cross, announced that classes in home nursing would open under direction of Miss Lena Mason, county health nurse, on March 27th.

Miss Eleanor Smith, county home economics director, announced the second nutrition school, would be held here at 9:30 A. M. on March 28th.

OUTSTANDING FAMILY A CREDIT TO COMMUNITY

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH di BENEDETTO

With six of their seven children serving the United States Government, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph di Benedetto, well known citizens of Bay St. Louis, are the kind of citizens we may well be proud of. Mr. and Mrs. di Benedetto were both born in Italy and came to the United States in their early childhood. They have been naturalized citizens of the United States for thirty-eight years.

Mr. di Benedetto was born near Palermo and came to New Orleans with his parents in 1873. He met his wife, the former Miss Josephine Alessi, and they were married in Independence, Louisiana, at which place they lived for a short time. Mr. and Mrs. di Benedetto came to Bay St. Louis in the year 1900 and engaged in farming for several years. In the year 1916 they opened a grocery business which has grown to be one of the largest and finest grocery and delicatessen stores on the Gulf Coast and which is known to hundreds of summer visitors and winter tourists.

Several years ago Mr. di Benedetto erected his present building which is a credit to the city. The business is carried on by Mr. and Mrs. di Benedetto and their daughter, Miss Mary di Benedetto. They have seven children. Six of these are engaged in different branches of the Government Service. Anthony, the eldest son who is married to Miss Theresa Bell, and who is an aeronautical engineer, was employed by the Douglas Aircraft Corporation and is presently employed by the Vultee Aircraft Company in Bellflower, California, which company is building planes for our Government.

George, who is married to the former Miss Imabelle Fahey, and who was an electrician and radio repair man, left on Monday of this week for New Orleans where he entered the United States Naval Forces as a radio technician.

Joseph, Jr., is in the United States Army, stationed at Camp Shelby. Dominick, the youngest son, is employed at Keesler Field in Biloxi.

Miss Nina di Benedetto who is a graduate of Hotel Dieu School of Nursing, is with the Veterans. Facility at Hines, Illinois, and Miss Mary di Benedetto, the ever efficient little business woman, is the only one of the children located in Bay St. Louis who helps take care of the business with her father and mother.

The di Benedetto children attended St. Joseph's Academy and Saint Stanislaus College. They are a credit to their parents and they and their parents are a credit to the City of Bay St. Louis.

Bay St. Louis Families Commemorate Feast Of St. Joseph, March 19

St. Joseph altars were on display on Thursday, March 19th, St. Joseph Day, at the Maurigi home, 117 Union Street, and also at the home of Mrs. Simon Necaise on Ballentine Street near the Old Spanish Trail.

With the customary abundance of specially prepared food and altars decorated with flowers and lighted candles, many persons visited these altars throughout the day and helped the sponsors pay tribute to this great saint.

Mr. Chas. B. Murphy, President of the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County, A. G. Favre, Clerk of Courts, and Alvin Genie were in Jackson on Tuesday. Mr. Murphy's visit was in the interest of Civilian Defense of the State. Mr. Murphy is Chairman of the State Salvage for Victory Committee of which he is a member—having been appointed by the Governor and Mr. Leland Speed, State Chairman of the Salvage for Victory Committee.

BINGO PARTY SUNDAY, BENEFIT OF KING'S DAUGHTERS HOSPITAL

A large benefit bingo party will be given on this Sunday afternoon, March 22nd, at Trapani's the proceeds to be used for defraying the expense of providing proper lighting under the operating table at the King's Daughters Hospital in case of blackouts, or during periods when electric current in this section suspends temporarily.

Everyone realizes the great good which the local King's Daughters Hospital serves in this community and the many lives it has saved in emergencies.

Also persons realizing the seriousness of the lack of proper lighting during an operation will appreciate the great need for this lighting equipment and will want to donate to this most worthy cause.

Hence don't forget the bingo party this Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at Trapani's.

Sermon of Rev. John Niemeyer at DeLisle

The Rev. Father John Niemeyer took for his text "Thou Art Peter" and he developed the threefold promise made to him by Jesus Christ 1900 years ago. Power of the Keys and the meaning to the Jews, curious, doubtful people.

Power of what promise—What thou wilt lose on earth meant to Peter. Power have gone on as head of the Church for 1900 years.—Today Pope Pius XII, his personal qualities and need of prayers today more than any has had—because the whole world has never been in such state before. He is the father of all people but other rulers attend one country. Pray for your spiritual father—Rock of the Church.

The Reverend Father ably delivered this beautiful sermon and promises to have a brilliant future.

RED CROSS CHAPTER ASKS FOR VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS

Aid To Be Given Tornado
Sufferers

With twenty counties in Mississippi suffering untold damage in property and loss of life from Monday's tornadoes which swept through a section of our state, Walter J. Cox, Chairman of the Hancock Chapter of the American Red Cross is in receipt of the following telegram:

"Monday's tornadoes in Mississippi, Tennessee, Kentucky, and Indiana killed approximately 150 people, injured several hundred, and destroyed or damaged many homes in 20 counties. Red Cross assuming responsibility for relief operations. In view of recent war fund chapter will not be assigned disaster fund quotas but should announce through newspapers and other publicity channels that they will receive contributions. Please report such conditions to this office."

As stated above, the Red Cross will not have another drive for funds but will receive any voluntary contributions which are sent it as this great disaster has taken toll of a great many lives, caused injury to many persons and destroyed homes and public buildings in a wide area and many thousands of dollars will be required to alleviate the suffering of the stricken people in this area.

Womans Society of Christian Service Meets

A very important and interesting meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service was held on Tuesday afternoon, March 17th at "The Answer" with Mrs. W. L. Bourgeois as hostess.

The devotional was given by Mrs. W. W. James and Mrs. Roy Cagle. The topic "The Health of India," given in playlet form, was very forcefully brought out with Mrs. Carl Smith taking the part of the returned missionary, Mrs. Lucille Anderson in charge of the hospital and Misses Anne Smith, Ruth Gray and Patricia and Jean Robin as student nurses in the hospital.

It was brought out that the ministry of healing has limitless opportunities in India where there are so few doctors for the great population and where so many serious and fatal diseases are prevalent.

Mrs. A. C. Exonides was elected delegate and Mrs. A. M. Ellison alternate to the conference to be held some time in Brookhaven.

Refreshments in the colors of green in keeping with St. Patrick's Day were served and a pleasant social hour enjoyed.

Dr. M. J. Wolfe, prominent young physician of Bay St. Louis, was elected a member of the Board of Directors of the Merchants Bank & Trust Company. We want to extend our congratulations to the officers and Board of Directors of the bank for having placed on their Board such a splendid young man.

Field Director Of South Mississippi Red Cross Visits Bay Chapter

Mr. Welch was recently appointed in the place of Mrs. Mollie Hodges, resigned, and this was his first visit to Bay St. Louis.

Mrs. Dennis F. Burge, Executive Secretary, states that home nursing classes under the direction of Miss Lena Mason will begin on Friday March 20th and classes will be limited to twenty, so that those who apply first will be admitted to the class.

Mrs. M. W. Briggs has generously offered the use of her cottage next to her home on North Beach in which to teach.

A number of First Aid classes are being taught at present by members of the class who received instructors' course given recently by a representative of the Red Cross from Washington.

One of the first and really important instances of the value of first aid was demonstrated very forcibly this week when Mrs. Alphonsine Favre, a WPA worker in Housekeeping Aid Project happened to be with Mrs. Bessie Hart from Kiln when she fell and severed an artery. It was two hours before Mrs. Hart could be brought to the local hospital and Mrs. Favre applied a tourniquet which prevented excessive bleeding and saved the necessity of a blood transfusion when the patient reached the hospital.

In Hancock Grammar Grade
Basketball Tournament
Held Last Week

The annual grammar grade tournament of Hancock county came to a successful close here last night with Saint Joseph's Girls and Salem boys taking the honors. The Salem girls were the finalists with Saint Joseph's of Bay St. Louis and although they played a brand of ball that would do justice to a high school team, they could not overcome the sharp eyed shooting and the stellar guarding of the victors. The final score was St. Joseph 28, Salem 22. Margie Haas and Ruth Perre, two of Saint Joseph's forwards were by far the outstanding in the game. A great deal of credit for the victory goes to coach Elaine Lamer. After her work on St. Joseph's varsity she was elected to take over the grammar team. Her greatest boast, not including the tournament is that her little charges won over the grammar grade champions of Baton Rouge.

In the boys' finals a snappy little Kiln team fought a team whose height was a deciding factor in the game. The final score of the game was Salem 29, Kiln 5. Although the score indicates an uninteresting game the fans were thrilled throughout the affair with the classy pass-work of the losers.

Salem's team was by far the best grammar grade team in these parts for many a season. C. Ladner, their coach, did a fine job with his boys. The placing of the teams was done in such a manner that a school not connected with a high school would win in the top bracket and a school having high school students would win the lower bracket. No high school players nor any grammar grade students, who played high school varsity ball were eligible.

Mrs. Breland, principal and coach of Lakeshore grade school is to be congratulated for the manner in which he conducted the tourney. All coaches were well satisfied with his work. At the close of the tournament he awarded the trophies to the winners and thanked the people for the high class of sportsmanship shown throughout.

An all tournament team was chosen at the close. Girls: Bourgeois of Waveland; Landrum of Salem and Ruth Perre of St. Joseph's as forwards; as guards, McAdams of St. Joseph's; W. Banks of Kiln and A. Mitchell were the selections.

The all-tournament boys team is as follows: Lafontaine of Lakeshore, and C. Adams as forwards; R. Favre as center and as guards: Curet of Kiln and Haas of Bay High.

Margie Haas of Saint Joseph was chosen as all-tournament captain for the girls and C. Adams of Salem all-tournament boys' team.

Honors for sportsmanship: for the girls, Salem and for the boys, Lakeshore. The champion Saint Joseph team consisted of Ruth Perre, M. Haas, and Pat Favre as forwards; Joyce McAdams, U. Favre, and C. Knost were the guards. The champion team was made up of H. Mitchell and C. Adams as forwards; C. Mitchell at center and C. Ladner and M. Mitchell at guard.

The referees are to be praised for their marvelous handling of the games. Gertrude Monti refereed all the girls' games and Brother Felician all the boys' games.

One of Our Beautiful Flower Gardens

One of the prettiest gardens in Bay St. Louis which has blooms of some kind blossoming at every season of the year is that of Mrs. Octave Fayard, Sr., on Main Street.

Mrs. Fayard, a life-long lover of flowers and bearing her four score and several years over wonderfully, attends her garden herself and is most generous in sharing her flowers with everyone.

The garden about the Fayard home contains every variety of flowers and while at present there is an abundance of beautiful calandulas and some white iris and lavender phlox, blooming, within the next few weeks the garden will be lovely with its many beds of lavender phlox in bloom. Also thousands of Easter lilies will be blooming at the same time.

In the rear gardens Mrs. Fayard has blooming at present some beautiful sweet peas and from which plants she has been gathering flowers for some time.

The Fayard garden is also noted for its beautiful variety of poppies which will blossom forth later, and more than two hundred healthy rose bushes.

Mrs. Roosevelt urges women to carry on pre-war work.

JUDGE L. C. CORBAN

THE March Term of Hancock County Circuit Court was concluded on Friday, March 13th, having begun on Monday, March 9th. Circuit Court was in session for a period of only five days. This is the first time in the history of the county, or in the memory of the officers that court was concluded in such a short time. Credit for this must be given to Honorable L. C. Corban, our Circuit Judge.

Upon his election to the Circuit Bench, Judge Corban found in this county, as in all of the other counties in his district, a crowded docket. He has worked zealously and untiringly to clear his docket.

The majority of the voters of Hancock County opposed the election of Judge Corban to the Circuit Bench, he being a stranger at that time in our midst and his opponent having been a former Circuit Court Judge, but today the people of Hancock County who opposed him, are his strongest supporters. They feel that Judge Corban is eminently fitted and trained to be a Circuit Judge. He is honest, upright and fearless in the discharge of his duties.

It is our sincere hope that Judge Corban will have no opposition in the August Primaries, but in the event he should, his majority of votes in Hancock County will be overwhelming.

LET KING RUN THE NAVY

WAR operations of the American Navy are under the control of Admiral Ernest J. King, who is chief of Naval Operations and Commander-in-Chief, United States Fleet.

The Admiral qualified years ago as a naval aviator and is one of the few high ranking officers with extensive experience in aeronautics. The people of the United States may be interested in his policy, enunciated sometime ago, when he said that the Navy will develop an offensive against the enemy as early as that can be brought about with adequate forces and, in the meantime, harass and damage the foe at every opportunity.

The new commander of our naval forces cannot wave a wand and miraculously produce ships. Consequently, his strategy is hampered and the scope of his operation limited by the means at his disposal. He assumed the burden of a two-ocean war, with a one-ocean navy.

We think it would be a good thing for loyal and patriotic Americans to permit Admiral King to direct operations against the enemies along sound lines. Particularly, those of us at home, who know nothing about the difficulties of the present war, could do less senseless talking about "taking the offensive" and refrain from cry-baby shrieks about "defending our coastal areas."

Admiral King, we presume, knows his business. If this is true, we can rely upon his judgment in the disposition and use of our limited forces. If he is incompetent or incapable, which we do not suspect, safety does not lie in trying to run the Navy through street gossip, on the air waves or in the columns of newspapers.

TRAIN YOUTH

THE people of America must plan for a long war. Even if this war may end in the near future, it would be folly to plan for a short war.

With this in mind, the people of the United States should consider military training for boys two or three years under military age. Of course, no one would suggest giving them guns, and bayonets, but physical development, drilling, a knowledge of weapons, and military courtesy and discipline would help strengthen their characters as well as their potential fighting ability.

It is going to be hard to beat totalitarian nations, whose soldiers have been trained from the crib, with soldiers whose only training came after they were old enough to make a living. To develop good bodies the right kind of exercise should be given early in life; to develop good soldiers the right kind of training should be given early in life.

ADS HAVE CHANGED

ON examining newspapers and magazines today, it is apparent that ads have changed. No longer do we find high pressure salesmanship. Concerns are not bragging how good their particular commodities are.

Reading the advertisements is now almost as essential to the average citizen as reading the news articles and editorials. The ads are full of good sound advice telling you how to conserve various essential materials such as oil. Patriotic concerns sponsor ads advising people against hoarding, or advising them to buy defense bonds and stamps.

The better the speaker the smaller and more understandable the words he uses.

Every American has one task, to contribute to the defeat of the foes of this nation.

Taxes for war represent insurance against complete loss which will be sustained if the Axis powers win the war.

LABOR LEGISLATION NEEDED

THE subject uppermost in the minds of the American public today seems to be the position that Labor has taken in our present crisis. It is rather hard to stand by and on the one hand see our boys in the army fighting for their lives and our lives, and for the security of our homes and our liberty, drawing twenty-one dollars per month, while on the other, to see Labor paid the good wages they are being paid today, and then to have strikes and disputes during these trying times.

It is our opinion that it is not the thought of the average workman to strike, nor to raise any question as to the wages that are being paid him. Our firm belief is that the working men of America are patriotic and that if it became necessary for them to work for a mere pittance in order to safeguard their homes and their liberty, that they would make the same sacrifices that the boys in the armed forces are making.

Our thoughts are that the trouble does not lie with the laboring man, but that it lies with Labor's so-called leaders who feel that they have to incite strife and disorder among the laboring classes in order to put over their point of view and in order to be paid the toll from the poor working man's salary.

We are in thorough accord with our Junior Senator from Mississippi, the Honorable Wall Doxey, when he said last week in the Senate that he advocated an all-out effort on the part of all classes of people in favor of a more vigorous prosecution of the war. He advocated immediate legislation to curb strikes and all other bottlenecks now hampering the war effort. It is our opinion that proper legislation should be passed to safeguard the rights of the working man and to safeguard the rights of this country.

The time has come when this Government must fight force with force. If a careful check of many of the so-called Labor Leaders were made, we would find that their motives would probably lead to the over-throw of our government in order to carry their point. This cannot be and must not be. We have a war to fight and we have to carry on.

In the South we have been particularly fortunate in that our Labor Leaders are far above the average and we have had very little labor trouble. However, if you will just pick up any daily newspaper, each day you will see where Labor, on some really urgent defense project in other sections of the country is having a dispute. Is this Patriotic? Without the leadership of certain un-patriotic, un-American officials of Labor Unions the working men of this country would never think of striking during these times.

It is time for our Senators and Congressmen to quit pussy-footing and to take some action to strike at the heart of this evil. We believe that legislation should be passed, stipulating that workmen employed by the Government should be paid a set scale of wages and that the legislation should also specify that union dues could not be exacted from the wage earners. And if wage earners are not required to support these human leeches, you need have no fear of them politically or otherwise.

We also feel that a thorough investigation should be made by the proper federal authorities relative to the activities of many of the heads of Labor Unions and if any trace of un-American activity is found the same punishment should be meted out to them that would be given to a traitor, not imprisonment, but death.

GOVERNOR EARL BREWER

FORMER Governor Earl Leroy Brewer died in a Jackson hospital on Tuesday, March 10, after an illness of several weeks. His body lay in state in the rotunda of the Capitol for several hours on Wednesday after which it was carried to Clarksdale for interment, accompanied by many prominent people of Jackson, including an escort from the Legislature, appointed by the respective houses. Gov. Brewer was a native of Carroll County, born August 11th, 1869. He attended the public schools and the University of Mississippi. He was admitted to the bar in 1892 and located in Water Valley for the practice of his profession. There he formed a partnership with Julian Wilson, who later served that district as chancery judge.

While residing in Water Valley Gov. Brewer was elected to the Senate and served during the administration of Gov. A. J. McLaughlin, from 1896 to 1900. In 1902 he was appointed district attorney by Gov. Longino and then moved to Clarksdale, where he continued to serve as district attorney until 1907 when he resigned to become a candidate for Governor. He was not elected in 1907 but four years later was elected Governor without opposition. After serving a four-year term—January 1912 to January 1916—he retired to private life, returning to Clarksdale where he resumed the practice of law and gave a portion of his time to business and farming. Several years ago he located in Jackson and took up the practice of law in the capital city. He leaves his widow and three daughters. His funeral was conducted from the Presbyterian church in Clarksdale, of which he was a member.

THE DOCTOR IN WARTIME

IN peacetime a doctor's position in the community is very important; in wartime, it is doubly so. Unfortunately, a doctor's life span is much shorter than other men.

In fact, according to the Journal of the American Medical Association, heart disease, kills 40 per cent of America's doctors.

There are a number of reasons why doctors die early in life. Probably the best explanation is their irregular eating and sleeping habits. Another thing, it is a terrible strain to have the lives of other human beings depending on their skill and care.

Doctors must be made to realize their one importance in the victory effort of our country. They must take care of themselves, as well as others. Doctors are one of the most important groups of defense workers.

The experience of the Dutch forces in Java presents positive proof that the finest offensive psychology is not a substitute for tanks, planes and guns.

Willkie Declined

Hon. Wendell Willkie, of New York who was invited by a joint resolution of the Legislature to deliver an address to that body has been compelled to decline the invitation on account of pressing duties which must have his attention.

Street Car Rails

Director Gatlin of the WPA has announced that engineers are now at work estimating the amount of steel possible to reclaim by taking up the rails of former street car companies, in the cities of the state where the old street cars have been abandoned and the rails covered up with concrete pavement. It is estimated that in Jackson 982 tons will be "uncovered" and the amount to be reclaimed in other cities will build up a considerable tonnage which the government needs.

Live Stock Show

The sixth annual Hinds County Livestock Show was held at Edwards March 9, 10, 11. The occasion was largely attended and many fine specimens of cattle were shown. The Grand Champion prize winner was a lowdown 8th, owned by W. W. Downing of Jackson. The second prize went to Victor's Best, owned by S. G. Osborn of Learned. Both champions were Hereford bulls, and are very fine specimens of the beef type. This livestock show has been a fine influence among the farmers who are developing beef cattle in this section.

We Have The Spirit

The records of the Naval Recruiting office in Jackson shows that 176 men enlisted in the Marine Corps through the Jackson station during the month of February. The legislature has taken notice of possible emergencies in the state during the war and has provided legislation and appropriations to meet them. The people of Mississippi, while deeply deploring the fact that the nation is at war, are doing a liberal, patriotic part in the war effort. Our people have noted the successes of the Japanese with emotion and deep concern, but have not allowed it to break or depress their fighting spirit. Through the haze of temporary reverses they see the banner of victory rising for the future. The first three months of the war gave Japan a logical advantage because of the situation of the Allies in the Pacific, but in the fighting the Allies have at least a two to one ratio in their favor. Figures given out at the end of three months show killed and wounded of Japanese 250,000, Allies 120,000 and nearly a hundred thousand of that number were surrendered at Singapore. Japan lost 1,500 planes, the Allies 1,000 and around 500 of these were lost at Pearl Harbor. Combat ships lost, Japan 31, Allies 10. Supply and troop ships lost, Japan 75, Allies 11. Man power and resources show a heavy balance for the Allies. United Nations and friendly areas, 38,325,520 square miles. Axis and dominated areas, 5,847,471 square miles; Population—Allies and friendly nations, 1,283,117,228, Axis and dominated nations, 547,062,613. Resources—Allies nearly double that of the Axis in available steel—Allies 69 per cent of wheat—97 per cent of oil—67 per cent of coal—nearly 20 times as much copper and about 18 times as much wool—30 days before Pearl Harbor the U. S. had 17 battleships and Japan had 12. That proportion is about right now.

It seems certain now that the Legislature will finish its labors and adjourn at the close of this week. The public school bill which caused much spirited contention was compromised in conference committee by raising the amount $1,675,000 over the appropriation of two years ago. The bill to permit picture shows to operate on Sunday caused considerable controversy but was defeated in the House on Wednesday of last week. It appears that the bill to provide free textbooks for high school grades will fail to pass. At this writing all efforts to increase the number of the highway patrolmen has failed. The effort to reduce the price of car tags to $3 has failed and will have no further chance at this session. The bill proposing a Workmen's Compensation law for Mississippi has been defeated and now has no chance to be passed at this session.

ORTTE THEATER SUNDAY-MONDAY "PINOCCHIO"

Musical treatment in Walt Disney's second full-length feature production, "Pinocchio," in Technicolor which will be at Ortte Theater, Sunday and Monday, is on a scale as elaborate as that which marked "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs."

Six songs are featured, each furthering the plot of the story. The picture opens on little Jimmy Cricket singing a melodious ballad, "When You Wish Upon A Star." As Jimmy completes his song, he offers to give the audience an example of a wish come true, which leads into the actual story of "Pinocchio."

The story concerns a kindly old wood-carver who creates a particularly engaging puppet, which he names Pinocchio. As he finishes painting the face on Pinocchio, he tries out the marionette to see how successful it is. He winds up his music boxes and, to the tinkling tunes, he manipulates Pinocchio's strings so that the latter does a dance as Geppetto sings a quaint song, "Little Wooden Head." Another song in this sequence is, "Turn on the Old Music Box."

That night, the Blue Fairy gives Pinocchio life because Geppetto, who always wanted a son, has brought so much happiness to others. Jimmy Cricket, a little vagabond, becomes involved in the situation to the extent that the fairy dubs him Pinocchio's conscience. Jimmy sings the lively song, "Give A Little Whistle," in which he tells Pinocchio that the puppet should always whistle for the Conscience when getting into trouble.

The picture ends on a joyous note, with Jimmy reprising the song, "When You Wish Upon A Star" for the Blue Fairy.

HOME Agent Notes

The various scales of camellia japonica should be controlled by spraying the plants as soon as blooming is over, advises the State Plant Board. The spray to be used is Government formula oil emulsion at the rate of 1 part of oil emulsion to 33 parts of water. Florida or Nursery Volck may also be used at the dilution recommended by the manufacturer. The scale causing most of the damage to camellias in this state is the tea scale. The females of this scale are dark in color and rather shell-like; the male scales are white and fluffy and are often confused with white flies. As scale insects feed by sucking the juices of the plants, the spray material must cover each scale thoroughly to kill it. As most of the scales are on the underside of the leaves, the spray solution must cover thoroughly that part of the leaves. The spray pump used must be powerful enough to force the spray out in a fine mist. These sprays will stain camellia flowers; therefore, if the flowers are prized, do not apply until all blooms have fallen. Sprays should be applied before new growth starts and should not be used when the temperature is below 70 degrees Fahrenheit. A shedding of leaves following the spraying may be expected as the badly insect-infested leaves fall. All fallen leaves should be picked up and burned.

"TARZAN'S SECRET TREASURE" OFFERS NEW JUNGLE THRILLS

Sunday and Monday, March 22nd and 23rd

Coming on the twenty-fifth anniversary of the first "Tarzan" picture MGM's "Tarzan Secret Treasure" will be at the A. & G. Theater screen Sunday and Monday. It is one of the most popular of the series of pictures.

Johnny Weissmuller, as "Tarzan," again presents his breath-taking feats of swimming underwater, diving off cliffs and swinging through the trees, while Maureen O'Sullivan offers a fascinating picture as a wife who can do wonders into transforming a tree-house into a comfortable home despite the absence of such modern conveniences as frigidaire, plumbing and electricity.

Laid in the world of the jungle, peopled by wild animals and the perilous traps and devices of nature, the new "Tarzan" tale revolves about Tarzan's association with the members of a scientific expedition who come upon his jungle paradise and, finding gold, seek to permeate the ugliness of civilization upon this untouched haven. After one of them attempts to murder Tarzan, they abduct Jane (Miss O'Sullivan) and "Boy" (Johnny Sheffield), their adopted son, then fall into the hands of savage tribesmen. But Cheeta, the faithful ape, finds Tarzan, and the jungle monarch, together with his army of elephants, saves the day. Giving straightforward portrayals in roles which could easily have been overplayed are Reginald Owen as the head of the expedition, Barry Fitzgerald as a genial Irishman, Tom Conway and Philip Dorn, the latter playing the villains of the plot. You'll also remember the work of a newcomer to the Tarzan pictures, little Cordell Hickman, who is introduced as "Boy's" native pal.

LIBRARY NOTES

Watch our weekly book reviews and read the books. You can get a rather full knowledge of what is in the library, by the reviews.

We take this opportunity of thanking our friends who used their talent for the benefit of our library fund. The musical on Saturday evening was not only a rare treat but a success financially and the library board is not only indebted to those who rendered the program but to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth B. Thompson who sponsored it. Our friends were out en masse and expressed their appreciation of having the opportunity of hearing these artists and those who were not present are very much the losers.

Have our friends forgotten the Victory Book Campaign? We must have fifty pounds to ship these and to date we have not received that number of books. We realize that time is at a premium with us all now but get out the books—mystery, western fiction, new books on mechanics and mathematics, travel, geography—these are what our boys need. Look around and see what you can find that will help to supply the boys with books.

The library was given a projector by Mrs. John Gayle Aiken. We hope soon to have films and entertain our friends.

We are always indebted from time to time for the generous supply of magazines from different sources such as the Beach Drug Store, DeMonte's and friends. These can always be used and the library appreciates them.

The following new books have arrived for your reading. DuMaurier's "Frenchman's Creek," Buck's "Dragon Seed," Brockway's "Respectfully Yours, Annie," and two mysteries by Carter Dickson: "Department of Queer Complaints" and "Seeing is Believing."

Take Precaution

With the robbery in the last few weeks of several bicycles, it is expected that with the rubber shortage and rationing of tires, more and more precaution will have to be taken to guard against the theft of bicycles.

THE Country AGENTS COLUMN

The Feed for Victory Program requires for complete success solution of two major problems. One—production is entirely dependent on farmers; the other—marketing, or distribution equally important, depends largely on farmers. Production can be solved by organized farmer effort and planning to meet known demand. Assembling, processing, grading, packing, storing, transporting and selling remain to be solved, also by organized planning. Farmers must assume these steps in marketing, either in whole or part, as their responsibilities do not end until their products reach the consumer. Cooperative effort in production and marketing must be relied upon more and more by farmers if they are to contribute their full share to war effort.

Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard says: "I think that the Axis powers have taught us a great lesson in the necessity of organizing for a purpose. With resources much more limited than ours they have dealt telling blows against us—and against other nations like ourselves. The reason they have been able to do this is that they have organized all their resources for one purpose, to make war. We had not organized our resources, until recently, for this purpose; the making of war for a long time was farthest from our thoughts. All that is different now. We already have marshalled our industrial production and our farm production into line to produce for victory. The marshalling is not complete—but its impact is being felt. It is imperative that all our efforts be organized."

Over 12 million more bushels of grain are needed to feed Mississippi livestock and farm families; that the 56 million bushels produced in the state last year, and this amount of additional corn can be produced on the same corn acreage as last year by planting the corn early instead of late, according to agronomists. On an average, corn planted in March and April yields 50 to 60 percent more grain to the acre than that planted in late May or June. This should influence farm practice, especially in our effort to produce food and feed in the face of a nitrate fertilizer shortage. The corn increase needed for state use can be met by increasing the 1941 yield on the average about 20 percent.

Avoid Turning Cattle on Pasture too Early in Spring

Cattlemen frequently make the mistake of turning cattle on pasture before plant growth is sufficient to support them properly. In such instances cattle lose weight and may injure the pasture for the remainder of the season. Cattle numbers must be adjusted to capacity of the pasture. A pasture will produce the most feed to the acre when there are just enough cattle on it to consume the grass. If there are more cattle than this, the total amount of beef produced will be less, while if the number of cattle is double the carrying capacity there will be no gains.

"M" is for March, the month for mending farm machines. Few days remain for removing rust, tightening bolts, and replacing worn metal and wooden parts. Rust increases friction and reduces efficient use of power. Rust is more easily removed from plow shares and shovels by scouring with a soft brick bat or with a steel brush and steel wool after the rusted surfaces have been daubed or soaked with kerosene. Loose bolts increase lost motion and vibration both of which aggravate breakage. Regular and periodic adjustment and tightening reduces wear, tear and breakage. Worn and broken parts should be repaired to avoid breakdowns and loss of valuable field time.

Take care of used barbed wire from fences no longer in use, by wrapping on reels such as barrels or kegs. A hand reel attached to the rear of wagon box is sometimes used for wrapping old wire where long fences are to be removed. Care of wire is especially important in the face of present shortage. Do not leave barbed wire where work animals may become entangled and cut up in it.

Among the new comers to Hollywood who are getting a big building up these days, one might mention Dona Drake and Donna Reed. Then there's Janet Blair and Jane Russell to reckon with, also. All of them are mighty personable actresses, with excellent ability to boot.

Rev. Father Sweeney Delivers Lenten Sermon At Delisle Church

On the 12th day of March, Rev. Father Sweeney, S. S. T., with his talented, philosophical mind delivered at Our Lady of Good Hope Church a very impressive sermon, the synopsis of which follows:

1. We need penance. God who created us without our cooperation will not save us without it.
2. We have outraged God by sin and have done it despite of his grace. So we must make amends to Him whom we know so definitely and criminally offended.
3. God is infinitely merciful because infinitely loving. So He pardons us for all, and cancels all our affronts by our doing penance and denying ourselves for His sake, thus making satisfaction as far as we can to Him for our failings.
This is itself an assurance to God of our love for Him and our grief for outraging so good and so dear a Master.

THANKS!

We wish to thank our many patriotic customers who are returning our hangers and bags. If we do not consume or waste these items we have more metal and paper for defense purposes. Also this enables us to maintain our low pre-war prices.

A SIMPLE BLACKOUT SCREEN FOR CIVILIAN DEFENSE PRACTICE

A number of ideas have been suggested by various agencies for blacking out windows during air raid practice. The following sketches outline one plan for minimizing the inconvenience of these periods and will help in making such tests completely effective while permitting you to enjoy normal lighting in the prepared rooms of your homes. The numbered paragraphs below refer to the object or portion of sketch bearing the same numbers.

1. Cut a piece of blackout material which is at least 16 inches wider and 24 inches longer than the window to be covered. This material may be of any dark material such as oil cloth, paper, blankets, etc.—in fact, any fabric which will make inside light completely invisible from outside. You may have suitable material already on hand in one form or another.
2. Cut two sticks of wood each about 1" x 1" and 20 inches longer than the width of the window to be covered (note that the blackout screen to be attached to these top and bottom sticks is 16" wider than the width of the window to be covered). One inch from each end of these two sticks drill a small hole, the holes in each stick to be parallel to each other but at opposite ends of the stick. Wrap one end of the blackout material around one of the sticks and fasten with tacks; wrap the other end of the material around the other stick and fasten with tacks.
3. Cut two pieces of strong cord each 18" longer than the sticks of wood. Push the ends of the cord through the holes in the stick and knot or fasten so that there will be a distance of about 3" between the stick and the cord when the center of the cord is held taut.
4. Install nail or screw at the top and bottom of the windows so that screen may be centered over the window and made taut. Whenever the screen is not in use it may be rolled up and placed away. If all windows in a room are effectively screened in this manner, normal light may be enjoyed through the screen may be hung over or under drapes and curtains provided it extends at least 8 inches beyond the window on all sides and fits snugly.

Everyone, whether at home or on the street, is urged to observe the greatest care to prevent accidents during the period of a Blackout. Also plan your engagements so as to allow plenty of time for delays which the Blackout may cause. Please cooperate fully with Civilian Defense efforts so that through prompt and informed action we may make each test a successful example of community teamwork.

The Thursday Afternoon Bridge Club met last week at the home of Mrs. Cornelius Herlihy in Waveland with the following ladies enjoying a delightful afternoon engaged in card playing: Mesdames C. J. Chadwick, Nobby Dick, Albert Fitt, Arthur A. Scaffide, Charles G. Moreau, Luther Ansley and Millard Toulme. High score went to Mrs. Toulme, and the travelers prize was won by Mrs. Fitt.

BLUEBONNETS IN BLOOM

Mrs. Chas. G. Moreau reports Bluebonnets are now in bloom in her garden at her home on Carroll avenue. This is rather unusual since the Bluebonnet is not native to this section, but comes from Texas, where it grows profusely. The plants in Mrs. Moreau's garden came from San Antonio.
